Contents

Acknowledgements 7

1. Unrest in the Roman Empire: Discourse and Politics 9
Lisa Pilar Eberle and Myles Lavan

2. Tell Me How I Conquered You: Theorizing Accommodation and Unrest in the Book of Daniel 33
Dan-el Padilla Peralta

3. The Roman Language of Civil War: From Internal War and Stasis to Bellum Civile 55
Carsten Hjort Lange

4. Struggles to Define and Counter-Define Unrest in the Cities of the Early Roman East 75
Benjamin Gray

5. Josephus's Multilayered Discourse on the Judean Revolt against Rome 103
Katell Berthelot

6. Narrating Mutiny: Towards a Discursive History of Military Unrest 123
Hans Kopp

7. Aporetic Unrest: Reimagining Materialism and Empire in Appian . 151
Lisa Pilar Eberle

8. From War to Criminality: The Roman Discourse of Provincial Revolt 173
Myles Lavan

9. Usurpers, Bandits and Barbarians: Narratives of Provincial Unrest in the Fourth Century 193
Bruno Pottier

10. Towards a Discursive History of Christian Persecution 219
James Corke-Webster

11. Violent Histories: Women and Unrest from Roman to Late Roman Historiography 255
Ulriika Vihervalli

12. Roman War, Rabbinic Law, and Provincial Sovereigntism 275
Natalie B. Dohrmann

Index 301

Contributors 311